In addition to our first artist album on Connaissanceur "Estroe - Elemental Assets" we present a wild bunch of fine interpretations through to all kind of styles. All 11 remixes will be released as remix bundle in digital plus a few remix extracts on vinyl.

Le Flaneur - The first remix is the mindbending Kollektiv Turmstrasse WaldundWiesenReh Mix that shows in an impressive manner that the two rising Northern Stars developed their trademark sound to even a higher and more grown-up level.

With their "Stumme Apotheker Rmx" the infamous Duo Christian Rottler & Deer give a lyrical answer to the original, its starts as a rather acoustic guitar tune and slowly morphs into a trippy and charming debaucher.

Updraft - both remixes are made by true veterans in techno business. Joey Mull, who delivers a straight pumping but still melodic dance floor mover, does the first rework. The Tedd Patterson Estroe-Glide is a genuine groove monster that combines classic US techno elements with a strong dobbie Disco Edit feeling.

Late Night Thinking - Surprisingly different from his last productions is Ripperton's Late Night Take #7 Mix, a piece of very organic low-slung addictive groove music. Drifting melodic patterns and hypnotic keys combined with a phat low key bassline provide top-notch spookyness for enlightened dancefloors. Melon's Winter Depression Remix - The title says its all - music that perfectly fits to the bittersweet atrabilioussness of the winter. Enchanting, mesmeric and deeply spaced this reduced percussion led groover explores Melon's more melancholic side of things.

RELEASE INFORMATIONEN

Inspirited Away - Steve Rachmad's Rmx is a brilliant produced slice of deep Detroit of highest order, punctuated with pristine pads and crisp hi-hats. Nuno dos Santos offers a delightful trippy post minimal adventure. The rework fascinates with its deep floating groove and a lush sound aesthetic. A sparse, tricky percussion underpins the early morning vibe and makes this a perfect score for a winter daybreak .

High Maintenance - Audiofly employ very clever the drum patterns with a floor shaking bassline including the insistent female vocals of Sam Leigh-Brown and work the track into a groove that hardly let the listeners go. This is a bootyshaker! Brendon Moeller aka Beat Pharmacy archives his remix duties perfectly and turns the original into a square-shouldered dub-epic. A must check for anyone that like envelope being pushed Passionate Timidity - Roberto Rodriguez, also appearing as part of the infamous Future Beat Investigators, offers a rock solid atmo-house rework that floats and meanders through time and space . Deep, moody, synth-heavy - simply delicious stuff !
